Andaman and Nicobar Administration
Department of Information Technology

No. 2-32/ITAct/2010 (PF)/241

Port Blair, dated the 16th Dec, 2010

Circular

With the increase use of IT to leverage technology, Govt. organizations are using Application Softwares like Word Processing, Spreadsheets, RDBMS etc for fast disposal of various works related to the department.

However, some of the departments, due to ignorance or limited technical knowledge in the field of IT, are being cheated by the vendors by supplying pirated softwares of Operating System, Office Suits, RDBMS etc.

The Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) issued by GoI covers computer software under the Copyright Law. Accordingly, the copyright of computer software is protected under the provisions of Indian Copyright Act 1957 and the amendments introduced in June 1994. According to this Act, the infringer can be tried under both civil and criminal law.

In view of above, all the departments are advised to ensure that no pirated software is being used by their respective offices. The compliance report in this regard along with the information in the enclosed format may be submitted to this office latest by 1st March, 2011.
